6 DAYS TOUR INCLUDING:

NUREMBERG · FRANCONIAN WINE COUNTRY · WÜRZBURG ·
BAYREUTH · REGENSBURG · MUNICH

In Bavaria, food and drink are closely related to conviviality and lively traditions. Bavarian specialties are best enjoyed with family and friends in a rustic inn or under shady chestnut trees in a beer garden. The right drink can't be missed! Franconia is the home of beer and wine in Bavaria. With over 300 breweries, it has the highest density of breweries in the world. In the beautiful Franconian wine country, wine lovers can enjoy the award-winning and fine wines.

DAY 1

Morning Arrival at Munich Airport. Transfer to Nuremberg (2 h 30 m*)

WELCOME TO NUREMBERG!

The charming city of Nuremberg is over 950 years old and is famous not only for its historic highlights but also for its culinary traditions. For example, the Original Nuremberger Rostbratwurst is known far beyond the city's borders.

Check in to Le Méridien Grand Hotel Nürnberg

Since 1896, this grand hotel has blended historic charm with contemporary comfort, offering 190 elegantly designed rooms. Having hosted royalty, presidents, and celebrities – and even serving as the U.S. Army HQ – it remains a true Nuremberg landmark.

Afternoon Food Walking Tour: From Bratwurst to Gingerbread with cookionista

A culinary tour of the historic center with anecdotes about Nuremberg's history while sampling traditional Franconian cuisine, such as sausages, beer and gingerbread.

Lebkuchen-Baker's de Luxe Workshop

Bake and decorate your own Elisen-Lebkuchen and take your self-baked Lebkuchen home.

Optional: Tour Red Beer in Deep Cellars

Beneath Nuremberg's old town is an extensive labyrinth, a 600-year-old rock-cut cellars, where the traditional Nuremberg Rotbier (red ale) used to mature.

TIP Shop at Breuninger

Breuninger, an upscale German department store offers an exclusive selection of international designer brands. Personal shopping, bespoke tailoring services, its own confectionery dessert shop and cocktail bar provide visitors with a pleasant experience.
