

Coburg

ONE-TIME ROYAL RESIDENCE
IN THE HEART OF GERMANY

TOP SIGHTSEEING HIGHLIGHTS

- 01 Veste Coburg – ‘Franconian Crown’, one of the best-preserved medieval fortresses in Germany, with outstanding art collections
- 02 Ehrenburg Palace – accords a glimpse into the grandiose living and sleeping quarters of Coburg’s nobility, with an impressive neo-Gothic façade
- 03 Callenberg Palace – tells the family history of the dukes of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha
- 04 Museum of Natural History – the largest of its kind in Northern Bavaria, dedicated to the geological history of Upper Franconia
- 05 Market Square – urban center of the city, surrounded by historical monuments, stores and cafés

SEASONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ May/June: Coburg Design Days
- ★ June/Aug.: HUK-COBURG open air summer
- ★ July: International Samba Festival
- ★ Sep.: Dumplings Market
- ★ Dec.: Coburg Christmas Market

CITY'S HISTORY

- ★ 1056: Coburg is mentioned for the first time
- ★ 1530: Reformer Martin Luther resides at Veste Coburg and preaches at the Church of St. Maurice
- ★ 1542: Coburg first becomes a royal seat
- ★ 1840: Prince Albert marries his cousin, Queen Victoria of Great Britain and Ireland
- ★ 1920: The Free State of Coburg decides to join the Free State of Bavaria

DID YOU KNOW THAT ...

- ★ ... the length of the Coburg bratwurst is fastidiously stipulated by the ‘Bratwurstmännle’ (little bratwurst man) atop the gable of the town hall?

TOP DAY EXCURSIONS

- 01 Rosenau Palace – birthplace of Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha
- 02 Hofgarten Park – landscaped as an English-style country park in 1858, ascend to Veste Coburg
- 03 Globe Coburg – the round form of Coburg’s new theater is based on the London Globe, perfect acoustic, accommodating up to 500 theatergoers
- 04 Culinary guided tour – discover the city and sample a range of traditional tidbits
- 05 Carl Escher Trail – hiking trail and cycle way, perfect to discover and experience Coburg and its surroundings

CONTACT PERSON AND DETAILS

Coburg Marketing

Ms. Kathrin Wortmann
T. +49 (0) 9561 89-8033
kathrin.wortmann@coburg.de www.coburgmarketing.de/en

-  CoburgMarketing
-  coburgtourismus
-  Coburg Marketing